THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 18, 1887.

LOCAL NEWS.

For this section warmer, fair weather, light to fresh variable winds.

MARRIAGES.—Mr. H. W. Newby and Miss Sallie Fogh were married at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Zeph. English, on south Fairfax street, yesterday evening, by Rev. I. M. Mercer, of the Baptist church. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of the relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom, after which Mr. and Mrs. Newby left for a trip to Philadelphia. The bride was the recipient of numerous handsome and costly presents.

Mr. David Meade, Jr., of Clarke county, a grand-nephew of the late Bishop Meade, and Miss Mary A. Johnson, of Loudoun county, daughter of Mr. V. M. Johnson, were married at the residence of Capt. G. M. Bache, on K Street, Washington, this morning, by Rev. G. B. Patch, of the Unitarian Presbyterian church.

Mr. Christopher Winfree and Miss Belle Fairfax were married in Lynchburg yesterday, at Memorial church, in the presence of a large number of invited friends. The bride is a daughter of Capt. Raymond Fairfax, of the N. and W. railroad, and a niece of Dr. Albert Fairfax, of this city.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild, with three prisoners and one lodged at the station house. The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Sam Bolden, a colored member of the chain gang, arrested by officers Price and Jones for being drunk and disorderly, had his time on the gang extended for sixty days.

Henry Anderson, colored, arrested by officers Hayes and Sherman, charged with a felonious assault on Richard Ware, also colored, was fined $5, and was also warned.

Chas. Lynamann, a sailor detained by request of Capt. Young, was released on the sailing of the steamer John Gibson.

The case of a young white man and two colored boys, charged with cruelly beating a dog, was continued.

Randolph Butler and Henry Anderson, charged with gaming, were fined $5 each.

Lacy Elzy, colored, arrested by officers Price, charged with harboring a fugitive from justice; decision reserved until tomorrow.

A carpenter, charged with maliciously destroying property in a house in which he has been recently at work, was discharged for want of evidence.

A PERILOUS PREMISE.—Yesterday evening a number of cadets of St. John's Academy descended into the old ice house in the rear of the grounds of the academy, and for amusement kindled a fire, using a quantity of old straw, etc. The flames soon got beyond their control, when they attempted to get out of the ice house by means of a rope. The latter broke, however, and they found themselves in a serious predicament. They then called for help, but their cries were unheard, and in the meantime the house was becoming full of smoke and they felt themselves being suffocated. Their cries then became much louder and were finally heard, when relief came and the imprisoned and suffocated cadets were assisted from what came near being their crematory. The flames in the ice house were soon afterwards extinguished, and before any damage had been done.

COLUMBIA S. F. E. COMPANY.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Columbia S. F. E. Co. last night, President Wm. A. Smoot occupied the chair with Mr. J. H. Strider secretary. Two applicants were elected to active membership. The committee appointed at a special meeting to prepare suitable resolutions of respect to the memory of Charles Hardy, deceased, late a member of this company, submitted their report which was unanimously adopted. On motion, Messrs. Smoot, Strider and Duffley were made a committee of three to prepare resolutions of thanks to the members of Columbia Company and the fire department in general of Allentown, Pa., for the many courtesies extended the members of this company on the occasion of their recent visit to that city.

BIRTHDAY PRESENT.—As Mr. Richard L. Carney, principal of St. John's Academy, entered the study last night, he was surprised by the presentation of a handsome saving set from the resident cadets, the occasion being his birthday. The presentation speech was made by cadet Edward H. O'Connor, and was briefly replied to by Mr. Carney, who told the boys that there was nothing in the world he prized more than their love and esteem, and that he was most happy to find that he possessed both. The attendance from abroad at the Academy is already larger than at any period of last year, and comprises cadets from Nebraska, Ohio, Kentucky, New York, Maryland, the District of Columbia, Virginia, Georgia and Louisiana.

PERSONAL.—Bishop J. J. Keane will preach in the Catholic church at Warrenton on Sunday morning next.

Bishop Randolph has withdrawn his consent to write a paper on "The Proposal to change the Name of the Church," and Rev. Cyrus S. Bates, D. D. rector of St. Paul's church, Cleveland, Ohio, is substituted in his place.

Mrs. G. P. Hill is quite ill at the residence of her father, Mr. W. N. McVeigh.

Mr. W. Preston French, who has been ill with malarial fever, is out again.

THE AQUEDUCT BRIDGE.—A sufficient amount of iron for the completion of four spans of the Aqueduct bridge has arrived, and the work of putting up that structure was begun to-day. The iron comes on the E. & O. railroad to Shepherd's, opposite this city, and in the afternoon the river is Georgetown on the B. & O. bridge, toward the railway track connected with the ferry between the B. & O. and the Midland railroads.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. J. W. Cramm, who had been in bad health for the past few weeks, but who was about yesterday, died suddenly last night at his home, near the corner of Franklin and Alfred streets. He had recently been a brakeman on the V. M. road, but yesterday had purchased a stock of oysters and intended to commence business to-day. He was a member of the I. O. O. M. and leaves a wife and one child.

THE POCAHONTAS.—Mr. R. M. Fryer, of the Arrow Steamship Company, arrived here to-day from New York, and brings the most encouraging reports of the affairs of that company. Orders have been issued for the purchase of large quantities of iron to be used in the construction of the proposed Pocahontas, and Mr. Fryer left here this evening for Baltimore to make the necessary contracts.

PROPERTY SALES.—Mr. F. B. Harper, wife et al. have sold to Mr. R. B. Cogau five-sixths of the tenement and lot of ground on the north side of King street, between Payne and West, 23 feet front, for $600, and Mr. D. W. Beatty et al. have sold to the same the other sixth part of the property for $125.

LOCAL NEWS.

THE LATE ALFRED PARKINS.—In its account of the death of Mr. Alfred Parkins, of Fairfax county, in this city last week, the Washington Times says:

"His life dreamed on Wednesday night that he had been brought home a corpse. Such an impression was made on his mind that he came to the city early Thursday morning to telegraph him, asking the condition of his health. Strange to say, Mr. R. E. Griffith had just received a telegram calling Mr. Parkins to the bedside of his dying husband. He left by the next train, arriving in time to see him pass away. He lived an honorable life, among his people, and his death is deplored by many friends. His remains were brought here on Friday night and carried to the Loudoun street Presbyterian Church, of which church he had been a consistent member for many years. His funeral took place on Saturday afternoon. Interment in Mount Hebron. The deceased left five sons and three daughters. He had his life insured for $4,000."

MEDICAL SOCIETY.—The Medical Society of the State of Virginia, of which Dr. Bedford Brown, of this city, is president, will convene in the hall of the House of Delegates, in Richmond, on Tuesday, October 18, at 8 p. m.

Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" cleanse and purify the blood and relieve the digestive organs.

The Medical Examining Board of Virginia. of which Dr. Bedford Brown, of this city, Dr. Alexander Harris, of Culpeper co., and Dr. Conway, also of Culpeper, are members for this, the 8th, Congressional district of the State, will convene in the Senate chamber at Richmond on Monday evening, October 17, 1887, at 8 o'clock. All persons desiring to practice medicine in this State, who have not heretofore complied with the provisions of the "Medical Law," should present themselves before this board for permission to obtain license to practice, at 9 a. m. Tuesday, October 18th, 1887.

The regular monthly meeting of the Relief Block and Lumber Company will be held Friday evening, Oct. 7, at 7:30 o'clock.

C. H. PICKIN, Secretary.
